

The quality of life at dinner time has been supremely enhanced by the fact that unsolicited telemarketers are no longer interrupting the sole meal of the day our family is able to share. Please do not do anything that will adversely affect this our pursuit of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. Please let us keep intact the State of Indiana's laws regarding telemarketers. Thank you from Happy Hoosiers.